Discovering Belgium

Belgium is a constitutional monarchy founded in 1830 and is only 30.528 km2 large (19.000 mi2) for 11.2 million inhabitants.
It is situated in the center of Europe and borders The Netherlands, Germany, Luxemburg, France and the North Sea as a passage to England.
Brugge (Bruges) is a historic town close to the sea.
Belgium has 3 official languages: Flemish, French and German.
The capital is Brussels with 1.2 million inhabitants and it is also the capital of the European Union.

The first king of Belgium was Leopold I. Since July 2013, King Philip and Queen Mathilde are the sixth royal couple of Belgium.
